അതിനു രുത്ത് നിന്നെ വിട്ടു പിരിവാനും നിന്റെ കൂടെ വരാതെ
മടങ്ങിപ്പോകുവാനും എഴുന്നാട്ടു പറയരുതെ; നീ പോകുന്നിടത്തു ഞാനും പോകും;
നീ പാർക്കുന്നിടത്തു ഞാനും പാർക്കും; നിന്റെ ജനം എന്റെ ജനം,
നിന്റെ ദൈവം എന്റെ ദൈവം. രുത്ത് 1:16

'But Ruth replied, "Don't urge me to leave you or to turn back from you.
Where you go I will go, and where you stay I will stay.
Your people will be my people and your God my God.'" (NIV) Ruth 1:16

Reading Portion: Ruth chapters 1-4

Long ago in Bethlehem there lived a lady called Naomi. Due to a famine in the region, she along with her husband and two sons went to the place called Moab and lived there. Her husband's name was Elimelech and her two sons, Mahlon and Kilion. Mahlon married Ruth and Kilion married Orpah. After few years, Elimelech, Mahlon and Kilion died. Naomi and her two daughter-in-laws remained (three widows). Life was very miserable and Naomi decided to go back to her native place. She called her daughter-in-laws and told them also to go back to their homes. Hearing this, Orpah went back to her place. But Ruth said, "Don't urge me to leave you. Where you go I will go, and where you stay I will stay. Your people will be my people and your God my God." Naomi was happy to hear this. Both of them reached Bethlehem. They lived in a small house. They did not have anything for a living.

Have you seen fields, ripe enough for harvesting? How about harvesting? Harvesters while harvesting, leave behind the grains and kernel which fall off to the ground for the poor people. Ruth with the consent of Naomi, went to a field and requested the foreman of the harvesters, whether he could allow her to pick up the grains and he allowed her. Happily she did her job. By noon time the owner of the field, Bovas who was well-dressed, saw Ruth behind the harvesters, picking up grains. He came to know that she was Naomi's daughter-in-law, Bovas had mercy on her. He told her, 'Don't go and glean in another field. Whenever you are thirsty, drink from the water jars the men have filled. How well you behave with your mother-in-law! May God bless you.' She thanked Bovas and started her work. She sat down with the harvesters to eat. Bovas gave orders to his men, 'Pull out some stalks from the sheaves and leave them for her to pick up'. Ruth gleaned in the field until evening and gathered lot of sheaves. She happily went back home and told everything that happened to Naomi. Together they praised God for everything.

In the presence of a big gathering, together with God's blessings, Bovas married Ruth. Ruth thus inherited all the wealth of Bovas. Naomi also stayed with them. Because Ruth clung to God and to Naomi who loved God, God did not leave her but lifted her up. Our Lord Jesus Christ was born from the generations of Ruth. That is why Ruth is called the 'great grandmother of Jesus'.

Message: If we cling to God, he will lift us up. If we remain close to God even in our unfavorable situations, God will help us. He will give us deliverance.
