'A righteous man may have many troubles,
 but the Lord delivers him from them all'. Psalms 34:19

Reading portion - Genesis 42: 1-35 and 43

By God's grace, Joseph who was sold as a slave by his brothers, became the Minister in Egypt, Canaan, where Joseph's brothers lived had no rain for a long period and thus all vegetation was destroyed and there was great famine in the land. People went in search for food items to many places. Famine, spreading of diseases etc. often occurs together. People in Canaan too, could have experienced all this and could have been troubled.

As per Pharaoh's dream, there was no famine in Egypt and there was plenty of food. Joseph who was in charge of Egypt had stored food prior to the famine. He sold the grains and made good money. Joseph's father Jacob heard that there was food in Egypt and he told his sons to go to Egypt to buy grains. So his brothers went to Egypt and asked for grains. It was Joseph, who sold grains, but his brothers did not recognize him, though he recognized them. But he pretended to be a stranger and asked them from where they were coming from and who all were at home. He inquired about his father and his brother Benjamin and understood that all were fine. He filled their bags with grains and put the money they paid, back in their bags.

When they finished their grains, they came to Egypt with their younger brother Benjamin to buy more. When Joseph saw his younger brother, he became very happy and revealed himself to them. He said, "I am your brother Joseph, the one you sold into Egypt! God kept me safe. Now I am the minister of Egypt". He wept and so did his brothers. His brothers thought he will revenge them back for their misdeeds but Joseph was very good to them. They ate together. Then Joseph gave them grains and send chariots to bring his father to Egypt.

When Jacob heard about his son Joseph and saw the chariots he send, he was very happy. Jacob travelled to Egypt in the chariot. When Joseph met his father, they hugged each other and wept for a long time. Jacob was so excited to see Joseph, his wife and his sons and stayed with them in Egypt.

Message: Though there is suffering for those who love God, everything that happens turns out to be a blessing.
