But he that is greatest among you, let him be as the younger and he that is chief,
as he that doth serve. Luk 22:26

Bible Portion: Mathew 21: 1-17, 26: 17-29, Mark 11: 1-11, Luke 22: 1-20, John 13: 2-11

Jesus came to this world with a specific purpose. He was the savior of mankind and the King of Jews. Jesus completed his ministry of the gospel in three and a half years. He spoke through parables, did miracles and wonders. By the time of the Passover, He decided to go to Jerusalem even though he knew the Jews would kill Him. Jesus told his disciples to bring the ass tied with a colt in Beth-phage. He majestically rode the colt and entered Jerusalem in royal stride, fulfilling the prophesy "Behold, thy King cometh unto thee sitting upon an ass and a colt" (Zach. 9:9). The multitude, men, women and children, spread their garments, and branches and leaves from trees on the way, followed, shouting "Blessed is He that cometh in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest", (Hosanna means Jehovah will save). On entering, the temple Jesus saw people buying and selling. Saying "my house shall be called the house of Prayer". Jesus threw those traders out of the temple of God.

Since Jesus did not have a house of his own in Jerusalem, He and disciples prepared for the Passover in another house. It was customary of the Jews to wash the feet of the guests coming home, the host to wash the feet of distinguished guests while servants washed that of ordinary guests. When Jesus came there with disciples, Jesus did not wait for servants, He himself laid aside his garments, took a towel, girded himself and washed their feet and wiped like a servant. The disciples were ashamed of themselves. "If I, your Lord and master have washed your feet, you also ought to wash one another's feet," Jesus reminded them.

Jude who betrayed Jesus left them after the supper. They used to separate one loaf as the bread of Messiah. Jesus took that bread, gave thanks, broke it, and passed to them saying, "This is my body given for you. Likewise the cups of wine saying this cup is the new testament in my blood, which is shed for you. Do this in remembrance of me"

Message: The Holy Communion is ordered for those who accept Him as his savior and obey his commandment of baptism.
